Washington might be raked and scraped with a fine tooth comb, doubtless, without unearthing any old-fashioned "quality." But if you want the truth, that which is reckoned in dollars and cents and warranted not to cut in the eye, Taylor will dish it out in the shape of 18 pounds Granulated Sugar for $1; Arrowhead's and Golden Rio Coffee 5 pounds for $1 and Levering 10 pounds for $1.

The Court ruled favorably and the attorneys for Davis and others took exceptions. The will bears date of April 15th, 1895, and was adjudged to be her last will and testament. The plaintiffs will appeal.

FAREWELL RECEPTION.

Tendered at Y. M. C. A. Last Evening to Secretary Baker.

With that spontaneity which springs from true friendship the members and friends of General Secretary W. G. T. Baker rallied at the local rooms last night for an evening of social intercourse and farewell expressions.

Mr. Baker has been with us about two years. In that time he has grown into the hearts of the members of the Y. M. C. A. as no other ever did. He possesses the power of mingling, influencing and leading with that rare and subtle power many times dreamed of but rarely seen.

During the evening, the pleasures of which were purely informal, about fifty young men came in and none left till it was over, about 10 o'clock.

President Cochran of the Board of Directors presented Mr. Baker with a purse of gold, which will provide him with a ticket to Boston and return, to attend the World's Congress of Y. M. C. A. General Secretaries, convening in that city next Wednesday.

Ice cream and cakes were served, speeches made; songs and music and regret and sorrow.

The Rev. F. W. Harrop will take charge of the Y. M. C. A., beginning Monday, when Mr. Baker leaves. This arrangement will last till September, when a new Secretary will be called.

The Shagboat Woodruff has commenced its work of removing obstructions from the river at Pittsburgh.

The Henry M. Stanley was up last night for Pomeroy and the Indiana follows tonight, while the Courier passes down from that point.
